

EU SUPPORT ON MIGRATION IN TUNISIA

EU Emergency Trust Fund for Africa – North of Africa window

Established in November 2015, the EU Emergency Trust Fund for Africa (EUTF) supports Tunisia in addressing the challenges of migration as well as reap the benefits of better migration governance and management of migration flows.

The Trust Fund's support to Tunisia is worth around € 69.7 million.

In particular it supports Tunisia in the implementation of the national priorities on migration such as:

- Mobilising Tunisians abroad for investment in the country
- providing social and economic reintegration services to migrants returnees through a 'National Mechanism of Reintegration' (Tounesna)
- Supporting young Tunisians prone to migration in regions most affected by emigration;
- Supporting the national governance on migration 'to have reliable and representative figures on migration dynamics in Tunisia (TUNISIA HIMS)
- Supporting Tunisia in the development of an Integrated Border Management system.
- Supporting Tunisia in the protection of vulnerable migrants and refugees
- Supporting Tunisia in its Labour Migration Governanc

Overall EU support to Tunisia

Some programmes funded under the European Neighbourhood Instrument (ENI) are directly complementary to the support provided by the Trust Fund, notably in the areas of asylum, border management, and the implementation of the EU-Tunisia Mobility Partnership.

Since 2011, EU bilateral assistance to Tunisia amounted to over € 1.7 billion in grants.

For the period 2017-2020, it focuses on the three following priority sectors:

- Promoting good governance and the rule of law;
- Investing in the future: stimulating sustainable economic growth and generating jobs;
- Reinforcing social cohesion between generations and regions.
